CHAPTER II

ELECTIONS UNDER SECTION 21 (a) and (b).

3. (1) Parts A and B of the Register as published with reference to section 31 (3) and (4) and 32 (4) together with the list or lists published by the Returning Officer in the Mysore Gazette, of dentists registered under either part, subsequent to the publication of the register, shall respectively be the preliminary electoral roll for the electorate specified in clauses (a) and (b) of section 21;

Provided that in the case of elections other than those held for the first time under the Act, the preliminary electoral roll shall be the register as last printed under section 45, together with the list or lists, published by the Returning Officer, of dentists registered subsequent to the Printing of the Register.

(2) The Returning Officer shall prepare and publish in the Mysore Gazette on a date to be fixed by the Government Preliminary electoral rolls in form I in Appendix I, containing names of all the electors for each of the electorates specified in clauses (a) and (b) of section 21.

(3) The Returning Officer shall simultaneously publish a notice in the Mysore Gazette specifying the mode in which and the time within which claims and objections relating to the entries or omissions in the preliminary rolls shall be preferred.

(4) On or after the date fixed for the receipt of the claims and objections, the Returning Officer shall pass orders in writing on each claim or objection and revise the preliminary electoral rolls in accordance with such orders, and the rolls, as so revised, shall be published in the Mysore Gazette as the final electoral rolls.

4. The Returning Officer shall appoint and shall notify in the Mysore Gazette and in such other manner as he thinks fit the date, time and place for—

- (a) the receipt of nomination papers and their scrutiny;
- (b) the despatch of voting papers to the electors;
- (c) the poll; and
- (d) the scrutiny and counting of votes.

5. Every candidate for election shall be nominated by means of a nomination paper in Form II in Appendix I which be supplied free of cost by the Returning Officer to any elector applying for the same.

No Dentists shall be eligible to stand for election to the Mysore Dental Council unless he resides or carries on the business or profession of Dentistry in the State of Mysore.

6. (1) Every nomination paper shall be signed by two electors as proposer and seconder and sent by post or otherwise so as to reach the Returning Officer on or before a date fixed by him which shall be not less than four weeks before the date appointed for the poll;

Provided that no elector shall sign more nomination papers than there are seats to be filled up;

Provided further that if more than the prescribed number of nomination papers are signed by the same elector, the prescribed number of nomination papers first received by Returning Officer, shall, if otherwise in order, be held to be valid, and if more the prescribed number of nominations signed by the same elector are received simultaneously by the Returning Officer; all such nomination papers shall be held to be invalid.

(2) On receipt of each nomination paper, the Returning Officer shall forthwith endorse thereon the date and hour of receipt.

7. Nomination papers which are not received by the Returning Officer before the date and the time appointed in that behalf shall be rejected.

8. (1) On or before the date appointed for the receipt of nomination papers each candidate wishing to stand for election shall pay the Returning Officer a fee of Rs. 50/- (Rupees fifty) in cash, and no candidate shall be deemed to be duly nominated unless such fee has been paid.

(2) The fee so paid shall be credited to the Council and shall not in any circumstance be refunded.

9. (1) On the date and at the time appointed by the Returning Officer for the scrutiny of nomination papers the candidate and the proposer and seconder of each candidate may attend the office of the Returning Officer; who shall allow them to examine the nomination papers of all the candidates which have been received by him as aforesaid.

(2) The Returning Officer shall examine the nomination papers and decide all questions which may arise as to the validity of any nomination and his decision thereon shall be final.

(3) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer not later than twenty-one clear days before the date appointed for the poll. A candidate who has withdrawn his candidature shall not be allowed to cancel the withdrawal or to be renominated as a candidate for the same election.

(4) The Returning Officer shall, on receiving a notice of withdrawal, cause it to be published in the Mysore Gazette.

10. (1) If the number of candidates who stand duly nominated is equal to the number of members to be elected, the Returning Officer shall after the expiry of the time for withdrawal of candidature declare such candidate or candidates to be duly elected.

(2) If the number of such candidates is less than the number of members to be elected, the Returning Officer shall after the expiry of the time for withdrawal of candidature, declare such candidate, if any, or all such candidates to be duly elected and the president shall in accordance with the provisions of Rule 21 take steps to fill the remaining vacancy or vacancies.

(3) If the number of such candidates exceeds the number of members to be elected, the Returning Officer shall forth-with publish their names and addresses in the Mysore Gazette and shall further cause their names to be entered in alphabetical order in the voting papers in Form IV in Appendix I.

(4) If a poll is found necessary, the Returning Officer shall, two weeks before the date appointed therefore, send by post to each elector a letter of intimation in Form V in Appendix I together with a numbered declaration paper in Form III in the said Appendix, a voting paper in Form IV in the said Appendix, containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order and bearing the Returning Officer's initials or facimile signature, a voting paper cover addressed to him (the Returning Officer) and an outer cover also addressed to him. A certificate of posting shall be obtained in respect of each such letter of intimation sent to an elector.

(5) An elector who has not received the voting and other connected papers sent to him by post or who has lost them or in whose case the papers before their return to the Returning Officer have been inadvertently spoilt, may transmit a declaration to that effect signed by himself and require the Returning Officer to send him fresh papers and if the papers have been spoilt, the spoilt papers shall be returned to the Returning Officer who shall cancel them on receipt. In every case in which fresh papers are issued a mark shall be placed against the number relating to the elector's name in the electoral roll to denote that fresh papers have been issued.

(6) No election shall be invalidated by reason of an elector not receiving his voting paper, provided that a voting paper has been issued to him in accordance with these rules.

11. Every elector desirous of recording his vote shall, after filling up the declaration paper and the voting paper according to the directions given in the letter of intimation, enclosed the voting paper in the voting paper cover, stick up the cover enclosed the cover and the declaration paper in the outer envelope addressed to the Returning

Officer and the outer envelope by registered post at the elector's own cost to the Returning officer, so as to reach him not later than 5 P.M. on the day fixed for the poll. All envelopes received after that day and hour or received by unregistered post shall be rejected.

12. On receipt of the envelopes by registered post containing the declaration papers and the closed cover containing the voting paper, the Returning Officer shall endorse on the outer envelope the date and hour of receipt.

13. The Returning Officer shall open the outer envelopes immediately after 5 P.M. on the day fixed for the poll at the place to which the envelopes are addressed to him. Any candidate may be present in person or may send a representative duly authorised by him in writing to attend at the time the outer envelopes are opened.

14. (1) A voting paper cover shall be rejected by the Returning Officer, if—

- (a) the outer envelope contains no declaration paper outside the voting paper cover; or
- (b) the declaration paper is not the one sent by the Returning Officer; or
- (c) the declaration paper is not signed by the elector; or
- (d) the voting paper is placed outside the voting paper cover; or
- (e) more than one declaration paper or voting paper cover have been enclosed in one and the same outer envelope.

In each case of rejection, the word 'Rejected' shall be endorsed on the voting paper cover and the declaration paper.

(2) After satisfying himself that the electors have affixed their signature to the declaration papers, the Returning Officer shall keep all the declaration papers in safe custody, pending disposal under rule 17.

15. (1) The Returning Officer shall attend, for the purpose of scrutiny and counting of the votes, at the date, time and place appointed by him in this behalf provided the date so appointed shall not be later than three days from the date fixed for the poll.

(2) All the voting paper covers, other than those rejected under rule 14 shall be opened and the voting papers taken out and mixed together. The voting papers shall then be scrutinised and the valid votes counted.

A voting paper shall be invalid if—

- (a) it does not bear the Returning Officer's initials; or

- (b) a voter signs his name or writes a word or makes any mark on it, by which it becomes recognisable as his voting paper; or
- (c) no vote is recorded thereon; or
- (d) the number of votes recorded thereon exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled; or
- (e) it is void for uncertainty of one or more votes exercised:

Provided that where more than one vote can be given on the same voting paper, if one of the marks is so placed as to render it doubtful to which candidate it is intended to apply, the vote concerned, but not the whole voting paper shall be invalid on that account.

(3) Any candidate may be present in person or may send a representative duly authorised by him in writing to watch the process of counting.

(4) The Returning Officer shall show the voting papers, if requested to do so, to the candidates or their authorised representative, at the time of scrutiny and counting of votes.

(5) If any objection is made to any voting paper on the ground that it does not comply with the specified requirements or to any rejection by the Returning Officer of a voting paper, it shall be decided at once by the Returning Officer whose decision shall be final.

(6) The Returning Officer shall nominate such number of scrutinisers not exceeding four as he thinks fit. In the case of elections held for the first time under the Act, the scrutinisers shall be Officers of the Government of the grade of Assistant Surgeon Gazetted and in the case of other elections, members of the Council.

16. (1) When the counting of the votes has been completed, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the candidate or candidates to whom the largest number of valid votes has been given to be duly elected and shall forthwith inform each successful candidates by letter, or his being elected to the Council. If any candidate thus shown to be elected has withdrawn from the election or refuses to accept election then in place of that candidate one of remaining candidates to whom the next largest number of votes has been given shall be held to have been elected and so on for as many of the remaining candidates as there may be vacancies caused in this way.

(2) If there is any equality of votes between any two or more candidates, the Returning Officer, shall after notice to the candidates concerned, has decide by drawing lots which candidate or candidates he shall declare to have been elected.

17. Upon completion of the counting and after the result has been declared by him, the Returning Officer shall seal up the

18. The Returning Officer shall publish the result of the election in the Mysore Gazette in the case of first election to the Council and also send a report to the Government about the election.

19. In the case of elections other than those held for the first time under the Act, the Returning Officer shall inform the President of the results of the elections, who shall then publish the same in the Mysore Gazette. The Returning Officer shall also send a report to the Government about the election.

DISPUTE REGARDING ELECTION:

20. (1) An election petition calling in question any election shall be presented to the Returning Officer by any candidate or elector at such election within seven days from the date of publications of the results under rule 18 or 19.

(2) An Election petition shall be presented in person by the person making the petition or by any one authorised by such person in writing in this behalf, or shall be sent by Registered post acknowledgement due. The Returning Officer shall give a written acknowledgement for every petition presented in person.

(3) The Returning Officer shall forward an election petition in original to the Government together with his remarks thereon, if any within a week of its receipt by him, if he cannot offer his remarks within that period, he shall send a separate communication later on but should not on that account delay forwarding the petition to the Government.

(4) On receipt of an election petition or petitions from the Returning Officer, the Government may, if they deem fit, appoint a person to enquire into the matter and make a report to them.

(5) Before setting aside an election under section 26, the Government shall give an opportunity to all the parties concerned to show cause why the election should not be set aside.

ELECTION UNDER SECTION 21 (d)

21. In the case of first election to the Council, the Returning Officer shall issue a notice to the Mysore Medical Council calling upon it to elect from amongst its members one person and forward his name to the Returning Officer within four weeks of the receipt of the notice.

87. The amendment shall first be put to vote: and if it is lost a second amendment may be moved and shall be disposed of in the same manner as the first amendment, and so on, until no further amendment is proposed.

88. If all the amendments are lost, original motion shall be regarded as substantive motion to which no further amendment may be moved.

89. If any amendments is carried, the original motion so amended shall be regarded as a substantive motion to which further amendments may be moved.

90. In all cases where a division has taken place, any member of the Council may require that the names or the number or both the name and the number of the majority of the minority of those who decline to vote and of those who are absent, be entered in the minutes.

91. When a motion is under debate, no further proposal shall be received except one of the following:-

(i) an amendment, namely, "That the motion be amended as follows" :-

(ii) the postponement of the motion, namely, "That the consideration of the motion, be postponed";

(iii) the adjournment of the debate, namely, "That the debate on the motion be now adjourned";

(iv) the adjournment of the Council, namely, "That the Council do now adjourn";

(v) the closure of the debate, namely, "That the Council do not proceed to vote on the motion";

(vi) the passing on to the next item in the programme of business, namely, "That the Council instead of proceeding to deal with the motion do pass on the next item in the programme of business".

92. When an amendment is under debate no further proposal shall be received except one of the following:—

(i) the adjournment of the debate on the amendment, namely "That the debate on the amendment be now adjourned";

(ii) the adjournment of the Council, namely "That the Council do now adjourn";

(iii) the closure of the debate on the amendment, namely, "That the Council do now proceed to vote on the amendment";

(iv) the postponing consideration of the amendment, namely, "That the Council instead of proceeding to deal with the amendment to resume the debate on the motion originally proposed".

93. The proposal for postponement of the motion may specify a date for its further consideration or may require its postponement sine die.

94. If the proposal for the adjournment of the debate on a motion is carried, the Council shall pass on to the next item on the programme of business and the debate shall be resumed at the next ordinary meeting of the Council. The proposer of the adjournment shall, on the resumption of the debate, be entitled to speak first.

95. If the proposal for the adjournment of the Council is carried the question under debate shall be dropped from the programme of business.

96. On the proposal for adjournment of the Council being made and seconded, it shall be competent for the President, before putting the question, to ascertain the opinion of the Council as to whether it will before rising proceed to items in the programme of business on which no objections or remarks have been received or expected.

97. The proposal for the closure of the debate shall be made and seconded without further debate and shall unless the President shall rule otherwise be put forthwith. If the proposal is carried, the motion or amendment under debate shall be at once voted on by the Council.

98. The proposal for passing on to the next item in the programme of business shall be made and seconded without debate and shall be put forthwith. If the proposal is carried, the motion or amendment to which it applies shall be dropped from the programme of business.

99. The President may, at his discretion, obtain the votes of members of the Council on any particular question by circulating the question and the papers connected therewith, placing before them all the facts and information relating to the same and obtaining their views thereon, such question being decided according to the majority of the votes and a minute regarding it being added to the minutes of the Council.

100. The minutes of each meeting shall be circulated to all the members and shall be confirmed if no objections are received thereon within thirty days from the date of circulation of the minutes to the members.

101. The proceedings of the meetings of the Council shall be preserved in the form of Printed minutes after confirmation by the signature of the President.

102. The minutes of each meeting shall set out the motions and amendments proposed and adopted or negatived, with the names of the proposer and seconder annexed thereto but without the comments or observations of the members.

103. When a new or amended regulation is adopted by the Council, the minutes shall contain a formal statement as to the effect of the new or amended regulation upon the previous regulations on the same subject.

104. After the close of any meeting of the Council, a printed copy of the minutes of the meeting as confirmed shall be sent to each member.

105. Complete minutes of each meeting of the Council after confirmation in accordance with rule 100 shall, as soon as convenient after the close of the meeting, be made up in sheets inserted in the yearly volume and consecutively paged.

BUSINESS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

106. The Executive Committee shall consist of the President and the Vice-President, ex-officio and four members of the Council.

107. The Executive Committee shall meet prior to the meeting of the Dental Council or at such other time as may be found necessary by the President.

108. For a meeting of the Executive Committee four members including the President shall be the quorum.

109. If any elected member of the Executive Committee is absent from two consecutive meetings of the Committee without its leave or if the period of leave exceeds three months, he shall cease to be a member of the Committee.

110. The Executive Committee shall keep minutes for its proceedings which shall be dealt with in the manner indicated in rules 100, 101, 102 and 105.

111. The minutes of the meeting of the Executive Committee shall be printed in same manner as those of the Council and copies thereof sent to each member of the Council.

112. In the case of the death of the Registrar or of his incapacity from illness or of his being on leave, when the Council is not in session, the President shall appoint a person to perform temporarily the duties of the Registrar.

113. The Registrar shall prepare the register and cause it to be printed. The Registrar shall cause the Register to be printed after entering therein a statement of distribution of the copies of the register as may be specified by the Government to the Dental Council of India under section 18(2) and to such others as considered desirable and necessary.

114. The Registrar in consultation with the President shall order such number of copies to be printed on a revision of the annual distribution list.

115. The printing of the minutes shall be under the direction of the Executive Committee.

116. All petitions addressed to the Council shall be referred by it to the Executive Committee to be examined and reported upon before being considered by the Council:

Provided that all petitions addressed to the Council shall be laid upon the table of the Council for such action as it deems fit.

117. The Executive Committee shall prepare reports on the subjects indicated to it by the Council when the Council is sitting and at other times by the President. The reports when finally approved by the Committee shall be circulated to all members of the Council at the next meeting of the Council.

FEES AND ALLOWANCES FOR ATTENDING THE MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL AND THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND OTHER EXPENSES

118. No fee shall be paid for attending a meeting of the Council or the Executive Committee.

119. For attending the meeting of the Council or Executive Committee, allowances shall be payable to members from the funds of the Council as set forth below :-

(i) Government servants should draw the travelling allowance to which they are entitled under the Mysore Travelling Allowance Rules.

(ii) A member, who is not a Government servant, shall be allowed one and half first class fare, halting allowance and road mileage, according to the rules applicable to non-official members of first class Government Committees. The halting allowances shall be admissible for any day on which he is required to halt on the business of the Council or the Executive Committee at a place other than where his permanent residence is situated.

N.B. - In the event of a member actually travelling throughout the 24 hours from one midnight to the next midnight, halting allowance would not be admissible. On the other hand should be halt even for less than 24 hours for a meeting, he would be entitled to it.

CHAPTER VIII

PROSECUTIONS AND REMOVAL AND RESTORATION OF REGISTRATION

120. If information is received by the Registrar that an offence under the Act has been committed, he shall, if there is a complaint, require the complainant to produce in the form of an affidavit or otherwise prima facie proof of the matters complained of.

121. The Registrar shall thereupon bring the matter before the President or if the President be unable to Act before the Executive Committee who may, if they decide that the case is one in which a prosecution should be instituted, take necessary action under Section 52.

122. If information is received by the Government that an offence under the Act has been committed, the matter shall be referred to the Executive Committee for enquiry and report through the Council.

123. The Registrar shall bring to the notice of the President any information reaching the office of the Council that a dentist has been convicted and sentenced by a Criminal Court to transportation or to imprisonment for an offence punishable with imprisonment and for a term exceeding six months, provided that (1) the offence is not of a political character or is one which involves moral turpitude, (2) such offence has not been reversed or quashed or the offence pardoned or has been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect.

124. The President may call for the explanation of the dentist. The explanation and the records of the case shall then be placed before the Executive Committee.

125. The Executive Committee may require the Registrar to investigate the matter further and collect further evidence.

126. If the Committee resolves that the case is one in which an enquiry ought to be held, the President shall direct the Registrar to take steps for the institution of an inquiry and for having the case heard and determined by the Council.

127. A notice in Form E in Appendix II shall, be sent by the Registrar to the Dentist not less than three weeks before the date fixed for the enquiry. Similar notice in Form F in Appendix II shall be sent to the complainant also.

128. Either party to an inquiry shall for the purpose of his defence or reply, as the case may be, and upon request in writing to be supplied by the Registrar with a copy of any declaration, explanation answer or other document received by the Council for use at the inquiry as evidence and every notice of inquiry shall draw the particular attention of the dentist to this rule.

129. Any application made by the dentist between the date of issue of the notice and the date of the hearing shall be dealt with the President in such manner as he thinks fit.

130. All material documents which are to be laid before the Council as evidence in regard to the case shall be printed and a copy shall be furnished to each member, of the Council not less than ten days before the hearing of the case.

131. The complainant and the dentist may be represented by legal practitioners.

132. When the complainant appears, the following procedure shall be followed :-

- (1) The Registrar shall read the charge set out in the notice of the inquiry addressed to the dentist.
- (2) The complainant shall then state his case and produce the evidence in support thereof.
- (3) The dentist shall then state his case and produce the evidence in support thereof. He may address the Council either before or at the conclusion of his evidence but only once.
- (4) At the conclusion of the dentist's case the Council shall if the dentist has produce evidence, hear the complainant in reply on the case generally, but will hear no further evidence except in any special case. If the dentist produce no evidence, the complainant shall not be heard in reply except by special leave of the Council.

(5) A witness shall be first examined by the party on whose behalf he is cited and then cross-examined by the other party and finally re-examined by the party on whose behalf he is cited. The Council may decline to admit in evidence the deposition of any witness who is not present for, or declines to submit himself for cross-examination.

(6) The President and the members of the Council through the President, may put question to any witness.

133. In the absence of a complainant, the following procedure shall be followed:-

(1) The Registrar shall read the charge set out in the notice of inquiry addressed to the dentist, state the facts of the case and produce the evidence in its support.

(2) The dentist shall then state his case and produce the evidence in support thereof. He may address the Council either before or at the conclusion of his evidence but only once.

134. (1) Upon the conclusion of the case, the Council shall deliberate thereon in private and decide by vote whether the dentist:—

(a) has been convicted of an offence as alleged against him,

(b) is guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect as alleged against him.

(2) If the Council finds that the dentist has been so convicted or his guilty as aforesaid, it shall direct the Registrar to remove the name of the dentist from the Register.

135. When the Council has received intimation from any authority that any qualification conferred by it on a dentist has been withdrawn by it on any ground other than that of the adoption of any theory of dentistry, then the Council shall direct the Registrar to remove such qualification from the register in respect of such dentist.

136. If as aforesaid, all the qualifications of any dentist have been removed from the register, then the Council shall, direct the Registrar to remove the name of such dentist from the register.

137. The Registrar shall, upon the removal of any name from the register pursuant to the provisions of rule 135 or of section 41, forthwith send notice of such removal to the dentist by registered post addressed to the last known address or to the registered residential and professional addresses of the dentist. The Registrar shall also send, forthwith intimation of any such removal to the Dean or Secretary or other proper officer of the authority which conferred the qualification or qualifications on the dentist.

138. The Registrar shall, within one month after any names have been removed from the Register by order of the Council under section 41, send to the authorities concerned conferring the qualifications, a list of all such names and shall call the attention of each authority to the following recommendation of the Council:—

“The Council recommends that no person whose name has been once removed from and has not been restored to the dentists’ register shall, without previous reference to the Council, be admitted to examination for any new qualification which is registerable in the dentists register”.

139. Applications for restoration of a name removed under section 41 to the register shall be entertained only at the next or subsequent meeting of the Council.

140. A person whose name has been removed from the register under section 39 (2) of the Dentists Act, 1948, shall apply to the Registrar for restoration of his name in the Register. If upon such application, the Registrar is of opinion that the applicant is entitled to have his name restored to the register, he shall restore the name of the applicant in the register on payment of the prescribed fee.

141. No application for the re-entry of a name removed from the register under section 39 (2) shall be entertained unless it is accompanied by a declaration from the applicant setting forth the facts of the case and stating that he is the person originally registered and by any one of the following documents:—
